

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF PRODUCTION PURCHASE

These General Terms and Conditions of Production Purchase (these “Terms and Conditions”), which shall apply to each Purchase Order which references these Terms and Conditions and shall be deemed to be incorporated by reference therein, are entered into as of the Effective Date, by and between Rivian Automotive, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“Rivian”) or one of its Affiliates (in the instance of Affiliate, those who executed a written supply agreement with Seller or issues a Purchase Order) (as applicable, the “Purchaser”), and the party to whom the applicable Purchase Order is addressed (“Seller”). Purchaser and Seller are each referred to herein as a “Party” and collectively as the “Parties”.

1. Offer/Acceptance.

1.1 Contract.

(a) The effective date of the Contract shall be the earlier of (a) the date, on or after January 1, 2026, the Parties execute any written supply agreement, including a Development, Production, and Supply Agreement, or (b) Seller’s acceptance of a Purchase Order (as set forth below) (the “Effective Date”). Acceptance is expressly limited to the terms of the Contract. No purported acceptance of any Purchase Order on terms and conditions which modify, supersede, supplement or otherwise alter these Terms and Conditions shall be binding upon Purchaser and such terms and conditions are expressly rejected and replaced by these Terms and Conditions unless Seller’s proffered alternative terms or conditions are agreed in writing by Purchaser, notwithstanding Purchaser’s acceptance of or payment for any shipment of Goods or similar act of Purchaser.

(b) Purchaser’s issuance of a Purchase Order to Seller does not constitute an acceptance by Purchaser of any offer or proposal by Seller, whether in Seller’s quotation, acknowledgement, invoice or otherwise. In the event that any Seller quotation or proposal is held to be an offer, that offer is expressly rejected and is replaced in its entirety by the offer made up of the Purchase Order. For clarity, any additional or different terms proposed by Seller (whether in Seller’s quotation, proposal, acknowledgement, invoice or otherwise and whether or not delivered prior to or after entry into the Contract or delivery of a Purchase Order) are expressly rejected by Purchaser, are not part of the Contract, and are not binding on Buyer without the express prior written acceptance of such terms by Buyer’s authorized representative. By accepting the Purchase Order, Seller agrees that it is willing and able to provide all quantities (i) referenced in such Purchase Order and/or (ii) set forth in Releases issued against such Purchase Order, in each case, during the period referenced therein. Purchaser may, for convenience, refer to or incorporate any quotation, proposal, technical documents or information provided by Seller in the Contract; however, only the technical aspects of the Products, associated specifications, and/or project schedules or timelines, in each case, as explicitly identified in writing as being agreed to by Purchaser, are deemed to be incorporated into the Contract and all remaining terms are expressly rejected by Purchaser and are otherwise superseded in their entirety by the Contract.

(c) Seller shall accept any Purchase Order that conforms to the terms of a mutually executed written agreement, including a Development, Production and Supply Agreement. Each Purchase Order (and the terms and conditions which relate to such Purchase Order, including these Terms and Conditions) shall be deemed accepted by Seller by (i) written acceptance (which may occur electronically), (ii) shipment of Goods, performance of Services, or commencement of work on Goods, or (iii) any other conduct of Seller that recognizes the existence of a contract pertaining to the subject matter hereof. Additionally, each Purchase Order shall be deemed accepted five (5) business days after Purchaser delivers the Purchase Order to Seller, if Seller fails to object to the Purchase Order in writing. If Seller objects to any of the terms in the Purchase Order, Seller shall inform Purchaser and propose alternative terms. If Purchaser accepts such alternative terms, Purchaser shall issue a revised Purchase Order that includes such alternative terms. If a revised Purchase Order incorporating such alternative terms is not issued by Purchaser, the Parties acknowledge and agree that such alternative terms are expressly rejected.

1.2 Order of Precedence. In the event of a conflict between or among any document comprising the Contract, the applicable document will prevail as follows: (a) a Purchase Order amendment issued by Purchaser (if any), (b) the Purchase Order, (c) a production supply agreement or any written agreement between Purchaser and Seller, and (d) these Terms and Conditions.

1.3 Releases.

(a) Purchaser may issue Releases against a Purchase Order to Seller, specifying quantities and delivery dates for Products referenced in such Purchase Order. Each Release may be issued on a rolling basis. Each Release is binding to the extent set forth in this Section 1.3.

(b) Seller shall accept, and shall not reject, each Release to the extent it conforms to the Purchase Order. Seller shall be deemed to have waived these objections and accepted a Release if Seller fails to object to the Release in writing within two (2) business days after receipt thereof. If Seller cannot deliver by the date(s) specified in the Release, Seller shall immediately propose a revised date that is at or before the Lead Time from the date of the Release.

(c) Purchaser may reschedule or cancel all or any portion of any Release issued by Purchaser upon written notice to Seller. Such written notice may occur in electronic format. Purchaser's only liability for rescheduling or cancelling any Release shall be to pay (as provided for herein) for conforming Products that have been manufactured by Seller on or prior to the date of such rescheduling or cancellation and that were scheduled to be delivered under the Release within the initial two (2) weeks covered by such Release; provided, however, if Purchaser cancels a Release and does not issue another Release within the next ninety (90) days from the date of such cancellation, then Purchaser shall also pay for useable and merchantable work-in-progress and raw materials/components that Seller was required to purchase within the applicable Lead Time to be used in Products that were scheduled to be delivered under the cancelled Release within the initial two (2) weeks covered by such cancelled Release, but only if Seller cannot return or use the same in producing products for itself or others. For clarity, Purchaser's liability under this Section 1.3(c) will not exceed the amounts that would have been payable by Purchaser to Seller for finished Products under a Release that were scheduled to be delivered in two (2) weeks following the rescheduling or cancellation of the applicable Release.

2. Quantity and Duration.

2.1 Seller acknowledges and agrees that Seller is obligated to provide Goods to Purchaser in the quantity specified in any Purchase Order or Release issued by Purchaser. If the quantity is not specified on the Purchase Order, the quantity is for one hundred percent (100%) of Purchaser's requirements for the Goods. Purchaser may provide Seller with estimates, forecasts, or projections of its anticipated requirements of the Products ("Forecasts"). All Forecasts, whether delivered prior to or during the course of the Contract, are for informational purposes only, do not express an intent by Purchaser to purchase any minimum quantity or volume of Products, and, except for Safety Stock as set forth in Section 2.4, are not binding on either Party.

2.2 Unless stated otherwise on the face of the Purchase Order, the duration of each Purchase Order shall be the period of time in which Purchaser uses certain Goods in production of Purchaser Products (the “Production Period”) and for fifteen (15) years thereafter (the “Service Period”). For the avoidance of doubt, however, this Section 2.2 shall not affect or otherwise modify or limit Purchaser’s rights of termination set forth herein.

2.3 If Seller’s ability to deliver any Products is or is reasonably likely to be constrained, Seller shall immediately notify Purchaser setting forth the cause for the anticipated delay and use best efforts to resolve the issue causing the constraint. Any oral communication shall be immediately confirmed in writing. During the period of any delay, Seller shall fulfill Releases prior to fulfilling orders for the same or similar products for any of Seller’s other customers for the period in which Seller’s production is constrained, using existing on-hand stock and Seller’s actual output. The foregoing is in addition to, and not in limitation of, Seller’s other obligations under the Contract and Purchaser’s other rights and remedies at law, in equity, and in the Contract.

2.4 Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Parties, Seller shall build and maintain at all times during the Contract a safety stock of Products at an agreed location (or in the absence of an agreed location, at Seller’s facility) at no additional charge to Purchaser that consists of a quantity sufficient to meet at least two (2) weeks of forecasted deliveries under the Contract (the “Safety Stock”). Seller will retain title to, and Purchaser will not have any obligations for, Safety Stock unless and until delivered in accordance with the Contract. Without Purchaser’s prior written consent, which Purchaser may withhold in its sole discretion, Seller may not sell, transfer, encumber or use any Safety Stock for any purpose other than to meet Seller’s obligations under the Contract.

2.5 UNLESS OTHERWISE EXPRESSLY STATED IN THE CONTRACT, PURCHASER MAKES NO WARRANTIES REGARDING THE QUANTITY OF PRODUCTS THAT IT WILL ORDER, IF ANY. IF PURCHASER ELECTS TO BUY PRODUCTS FROM SELLER, IT WILL ISSUE A PURCHASE ORDER TO SELLER FOR THE PRODUCTS AND, IF APPLICABLE, ONE OR MORE RELEASES; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, NOTHING IN THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS REQUIRES PURCHASER TO ISSUE A PURCHASE ORDER OR RELEASE.

3. Service Requirements.

3.1 During each of the Production Period and the Service Period, Seller shall sell the Products to Purchaser to fulfill Purchaser’s service requirements for Purchaser Product (the “Service Parts”). Unless otherwise agreed in writing by Purchaser, the price(s) for the Service Parts during the initial five (5) years of the Service Period shall be the price(s) that were in effect at the end of the Production Period, and the Parties shall negotiate in good faith the price(s) for the Service Parts for the remaining ten (10) years of the Service Period, which price(s) shall be at or less than the lowest price(s) charged to Seller’s other customers for such (or similar) parts. Purchaser shall have the option to designate a different delivery location for Service Parts.

3.2 During each of the Production Period and the Service Period, if Purchaser desires to purchase components or parts of Products, Seller shall sell to Purchaser such components or parts at an equitable price that reflects the cost of the component or part less assembly costs, plus a markup commensurate with that on the related Product and any actual cost differential for packaging and assembly or manufacturing.

3.3 Following the expiration of the Production Period, Seller shall maintain tooling and an adequate stock of materials and supplies needed to produce new Service Parts throughout the Service Period.

4. Warranties.

4.1 General Warranties. Seller represents and warrants to Purchaser that (a) it is duly qualified to do business and is in good standing in every jurisdiction in which such qualification is required for purposes of each Contract, and (b) it has the authority and ability to enter into, perform the obligations under and agree to the covenants contained in the Contract, and to grant the rights and licenses granted under each Contract.

4.2 Products Warranties. In addition to any express warranties otherwise set forth in the Contract, any statutory warranties or any warranties implied by law, Seller, on behalf of itself, its Affiliates, and their respective subcontractors and/or sub-suppliers, as applicable, expressly represents and warrants to Purchaser, its Affiliates, and their respective customers, successors and assigns that the Products shall: (a) not infringe any Intellectual Property Right of any third party, either on its own or in combination with any reasonably foreseeable goods, services, and/or software; (b) strictly conform to and/or operate in accordance with the applicable Specifications and end-users' reasonable expectations, (c) conform to all drawings, PPAP submissions, samples and other descriptions furnished or relied upon by Purchaser or otherwise part of the Contract; (d) be merchantable, free from defects in design (except to the extent designed by Purchaser without input from Seller), materials and workmanship, and shall be new (except to the extent Purchaser expressly agrees in writing otherwise) and of highest quality; (e) be fit for the purpose for which they are intended and safe for any use that is consistent with the applicable Specifications or that is reasonably foreseeable; (f) be free and clear of all liens, claims or other encumbrances, and conveyed to Purchaser with good title; (g) conform to all industry standards and Laws in force in countries to which Purchaser Products are exported, sold, or used, including, as applicable, the National Traffic and Motor Vehicles Safety Act and all Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standards (FMVSS) referenced therein, California Air Quality Legislation and Air Resources Board regulations, Canadian Motor Vehicle Safety Act and all Canadian Motor Vehicle Safety Standards referenced therein, and European Union Directive 2007/46 (Whole Vehicle Approval Framework Directive) and all applicable regulations and directives referenced therein; (h) be free of all malware, viruses and all other malicious code, disabling code, or code that causes either the Product or any product into which the Product is incorporated to perform in an unintended manner; (i) not cause any portion of Purchaser Product or any software owned or licensed by Purchaser, or any derivative thereof to (1) become subject to all or part of the license obligations or other Intellectual Property Rights or restrictions of any third party, including any open source software requirements; or (2) be disclosed or distributed in source code form, licensed to third parties for the purpose of making derivatives or such software, or redistributed free or charge; and (j) not be counterfeit goods including, but not limited to, whose authenticity cannot be verified, parts that have not been supplied through a source represented to Purchaser, or parts that have been altered or modified but are presented as new.

4.3 Services Warranties. Seller represents and warrants to Purchaser that Seller shall (a) perform all services in a professional and workmanlike manner, using qualified personnel with the required skill, experience and qualifications to meet its obligations under the Contract; (b) perform all services in accordance with all applicable Laws, as well as regulations, industry standards or other standards, labeling, transporting, licensing approval or certification requirements, in the United States or any other country where the Products will be exported, sold, or used; and (c) not infringe or misappropriate any Intellectual Property Rights of any third party.

4.4 Compliance Warranties. Seller represents and warrants to Purchaser that:

(a) it is not debarred, suspended, excluded, or disqualified from doing business with the United States Government, or listed as the Excluded Parties List System maintained by the General Services Administration of the United States Government (found at www.sam.gov, as may be relocated).

(b) (i) it is not under investigation by any Governmental Authority for, nor has it been charged with, or convicted of, money laundering, drug trafficking, terrorist-related activities, any crimes which in the United States would be predicate crimes to money laundering, or any violation of any Anti-Money Laundering Laws, (ii) has not been assessed civil or criminal penalties under any Anti-Money Laundering Laws, and (iii) it has not had any of its funds seized or forfeited in any action under any Anti-Money Laundering Laws;

(c) it is in compliance with all applicable domestic or foreign Anti-Corruption Laws, including those prohibiting the bribery of Government Officials, and will remain in compliance with all applicable Laws; that it will not authorize, offer or make payments directly or indirectly to any Government Official; and that no part of the payments received by it (whether compensation or otherwise) from Purchaser will be used for any purpose that could constitute a violation of any applicable Law;

(d) neither it nor any of its Representatives or subcontractors is the subject of any sanctions administered or enforced by the U.S. Department of the Treasury's Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC), the United Nations Security Council (UNSC), the European Union (EU), His Majesty's Treasury (HMT), or other relevant sanctions authority (collectively, "Sanctions"), nor is Seller, or any of its Representatives or subcontractors located, organized or resident in a country or territory that is the subject of Sanctions;

(e) neither it nor any of its Representatives or subcontractors has violated any Sanctions; and

(f) neither it nor any of its Representatives or subcontractors will use any funds received by or on behalf of Purchaser to fund or engage in any activities with any Person or in any country or territory, that, at the time of such funding or activity, is the subject of Sanctions, or in any other manner that will result in a violation by any Person of any Sanctions.

4.5 Future Performance; Non-Exhaustive. All representations and warranties of Seller shall be deemed to be repeated on a daily basis during the term of the Contract and for the duration of all of Seller's obligations under the Contract. As such, all representations and warranties of Seller shall extend to, and shall be deemed to be made by Seller with respect to, future performance of the Products (including Service Parts) throughout the Warranty Period and Service Period and are not modified, waived or discharged by delivery, inspection, tests, acceptance or payment. Purchaser's approval of any design, drawing, material, process or specifications will not relieve Seller of these representations and warranties. The warranties set forth in this Section 4 are in addition to any warranties express or implied by law or equity or otherwise made by Seller. Any applicable statute of limitations on Purchaser's claims for breach of warranty will commence no earlier than the date Purchaser discovers the breach of the applicable warranty.

4.6 Notice to Purchaser. Seller shall immediately notify Purchaser in writing in the event Seller breaches, or has reason to believe that it will breach (through its or a third party's act or omission, including receipt of notice by or on behalf of any Governmental Authority), any representation or warranty set forth in this Section 4.

4.7 Remedial Action. Seller will immediately notify Purchaser in writing when it becomes aware of any ingredient, component, design or defect in the Products that is or may become harmful to Persons or property or fails to meet the Specifications or other requirements of the Contract. Promptly upon learning of defective or non-conforming Products, and in addition to complying with Section 7.2 and Section 18.4 below, Seller will develop, document and implement corrective actions in accordance with all applicable quality control policies and standards of Purchaser, including by: (a) promptly investigating and reporting on the root cause of the problem; (b) remedying the cause of the problem and resuming performance in accordance with the Contract;

(c) implementing and notifying Purchaser of measures taken by Seller to prevent recurrences if the problem is otherwise likely to recur; and (d) making written recommendations to Purchaser for improvements in procedures.

5. Quality.

5.1 Compliance Requirements. Seller shall comply with, and shall cause its permitted subcontractors and sub-suppliers, to comply in all respects with Purchaser's most current Specifications, the requirements set forth in Purchaser's Supplier Code of Conduct, Purchaser's Supplier Quality Manual (or other applicable supplier quality documentation), all applicable supplier quality and development process requirements, quality control and safety standards, procedures and inspection systems, and applicable Laws. Without limiting the foregoing, Seller shall provide an accurate and complete International Material Data System submission for each non-prototype Product and, as requested by Purchaser, information regarding the origin of all materials in each Product. Seller shall also disclose such information regarding its subcontractors and sub-suppliers as and when reasonably requested by Purchaser.

5.2 PPAP. Seller agrees to comply with all requirements of the industry-standard Production Part Approval Processes ("PPAP") for all Products. Level 3 PPAP is required for all Products unless (a) the Products supplied to Purchaser are in production on another automotive vehicle platform and have a prior Level 3 PPAP (100% production tooled/ 100% production process), in which case a copy of the part submission warrant is required and Purchaser reserves the right to request further proof of documentation and/or data; or (b) the Products are interim or prototype, in which case 100% inspection of all Products, material certification for each Product, and a control plan is required in advance of every shipment to Purchaser, and failure to supply this information will result in the rejection of the Products. The foregoing PPAP requirement applies only to the first shipments of new production parts, unless there is a production facility or tooling move, change of any supplier, design (by either Party), manufacturing facility, or tooling, and/or change of any manufacturing process. In the event of any conflict between quality requirements between express provisions of these Terms and Conditions and any part of the programs, requirements and/or standards referenced in this Section 5.2, the provisions that require higher quality standards shall control. Products may not be shipped from the Seller's facility until PPAP approval is granted by Purchaser or written authorization is given by Purchaser. Seller is responsible for all costs incurred by Purchaser or for any Products shipped that do not conform to the requirements specified in this Section 5.2.

5.3 Inspection and Reclamation. Purchaser shall have the right (but not the obligation) to inspect, to review work progress, and to test all Products, tooling, special tooling, materials and workmanship to the extent practicable at all times and places during the period of manufacture. Purchaser's inspection of the Products, whether during manufacture, prior to delivery or within a reasonable time after delivery, shall not constitute acceptance of any work in process or finished Products. Purchaser shall have the right to enter Seller's facility during normal business hours or, in the event of a Seller shutdown, at reasonable times, to inspect the facility, Products, production procedures, materials and any property of Purchaser covered by each Purchase Order and, without the necessity of a court order, may enter upon Seller's property and remove property belonging to Purchaser or any customer of Purchaser, including, Purchaser's Property and other goods, inventory or Seller's property that has been or is agreed to be sold to Purchaser under the Purchase Order.

5.4 Designated Suppliers. The Contract may include the designation of a third party that Seller is obligated to use as a supplier of certain parts or services to be used in performance of Seller's obligations under the Contract (such third party, a "Designated Supplier"). Such designation does not relieve Seller of any of its obligations under the Contract; for the avoidance of doubt, Seller acknowledges that it remains fully responsible for the performance of services and quality of parts provided by any Designated Suppliers, including any acts and omissions that result in Seller failing to comply with or renders Seller in breach of a Purchase Order or the Contract.. Seller acknowledges and agrees that Purchaser will be a third-party beneficiary of the agreement between Seller and the Designated Supplier(s) for the respective Designated Component(s). As such, Seller agrees that Purchaser has the right, and will be entitled to: (i) enforce Seller's agreement with the respective Designated Supplier, in Purchaser's sole discretion, as though the Designated Supplier were selling the Designated Component(s) to Purchaser directly, and/or (ii) direct Seller to enforce Seller's agreement against the Designated Supplier.

6. Delivery.

6.1 Seller shall deliver Products both in quantities and at times specified in the Contract. Unless otherwise stated in the Contract, Products shall be delivered FCA or DAP (Incoterms 2020) Purchaser's designated manufacturing facility, with export customs formalities completed by Seller and title will transfer upon receipt of the Products by Purchaser at such facility. Seller shall adhere to shipping directions specified by Purchaser. Purchaser shall not be required to make payment for Products delivered to Purchaser that are in excess of firm quantities and delivery schedules specified in the Contract. Seller shall not procure, produce or ship any Products unless authorized in writing by Purchaser or as necessary to meet specific delivery dates. Shipments in excess of those authorized by Purchaser may be returned to Seller at Seller's expense, and Purchaser may debit Seller for the cost of such returns. Purchaser may change shipping schedules or direct temporary suspension of such scheduled shipments. Purchaser may change the rate of scheduled shipments or direct temporary suspension of scheduled shipments, neither of which shall entitle Seller to a modification of the price of Products. Premium shipping expenses and/or other expenses necessary to meet delivery schedules set forth in the Contract shall be Seller's sole responsibility.

6.2 Seller shall provide packing slips for all shipments. Packing slips and other shipping documents and memos, such as bills of lading, shall show the Purchase Order number, part number, vendor, and item and reference numbers. For each international shipment, in addition to the aforementioned packing list, Seller shall include a customs valuation invoice (pro forma or "Commercial Invoice", using the value set forth in the Purchase Order), with a master packing slip and shall furnish all other required or reasonably requested export/import documents. Transferable credits, benefits or rights associated with or arising from Products purchased under the Contract, including trade credits, export credits or rights to the refund of duties, taxes or fees, belong to Purchaser, and Seller agrees to take any reasonable action necessary for Purchaser to obtain the same. Without limiting the foregoing, Seller shall furnish (a) all documents required to obtain export credits and customs drawbacks that are available in respect of the finished Products; (b) certificates of origin of the materials and Products provided and the value added in each country; (c) all United States-Mexico-Canada Agreement (USMCA), as may be amended or recodified, American Automobile Labeling Act (AALA) and any other free trade agreement or trade preference related or required documents; (d) all required export licenses or authorizations; and (e) any other documents requested by Purchaser or any of its customers. Seller represents and warrants that the contents of such documents shall be true and accurate. Seller shall indemnify Purchaser for any damages, including duties, interest and penalties, arising from a false or inaccurate statement.

6.3 The Products provided by Seller shall be properly packed, marked, loaded and shipped as required by the Purchase Order and by the transporting carrier. For international shipments, all wooden packaging will be properly heat treated with IPPC stamp applied, and certificate delivered to Purchaser upon request. Purchaser may specify the method of transportation and the type and number of packing slips and other documents to be provided with each shipment. Seller shall comply with all shipping instructions and related processes provided by Purchaser. If Purchaser has not provided packing or shipping instructions, Seller will pack and ship Products in accordance with industry standards. If expendable packaging is directed by Purchaser to be used in the shipment of the Products, Seller shall maintain expendable packaging on hand to support two (2) weeks of Release quantities under the Contract, unless otherwise approved in writing by Purchaser. For the avoidance of doubt, at no point shall Purchaser be responsible for the cost of more than a two (2) weeks' supply of expendable packaging on a rolling basis. Seller shall reimburse Purchaser for all expenses, including damage to the Products, incurred due to improper packing, marking, or loading. Unless otherwise provided in the Purchase Order, any charges or costs related to the handling, packaging, storage or transportation of the Products are the responsibility of the Seller and have been included in the price of the Products.

6.4 Time, Quantity and Quality are of the Essence.

(a) TIME, QUANTITY, AND QUALITY ARE OF THE ESSENCE AS TO ALL GOODS AND SERVICES. If Seller is late in delivery of any Goods or its provision of any Services, or if Seller cannot deliver the full quantities of Goods required under the Contract, or if Seller cannot meet the quality requirements under the Contract, Seller shall be in default under the Contract. In addition to any other binding obligations on Seller under the Contract, if Seller cannot meet the delivery dates, quantities or quality requirements specified in the Contract, Seller will promptly notify Purchaser and Purchaser shall be entitled to exercise any or all of the remedies set forth in Section 7.3 and 7.4.

(b) The provisions of this Section 6.4 are in addition to, and not in limitation of, Seller's other obligations under the Contract and Purchaser's other rights and remedies provided at law, in equity, and in the Contract.

7. Remedies.

7.1 Rights and Remedies Cumulative. The rights and remedies reserved to Purchaser in the Contract shall be cumulative with, and additional to, all other or further remedies provided at law or in equity.

7.2 Rejection of Non-Conforming Products. Purchaser shall have the right, in addition to exercising all other rights Purchaser may have under the Uniform Commercial Code and any other applicable Law, to reject Products as non-conforming or defective, and at Purchaser's option: (a) retain the non-conforming or defective Products in whole or in part with an appropriate adjustment in the price for the Products; (b) require Seller to repair, or replace the non-conforming or defective Products within 24 hours of Purchaser's notice thereof, at Seller's sole expense, including all shipping, transportation, and installation costs; and/or (c) correct or replace the non-conforming or defective Products with similar items and recover all costs relating thereto from Seller.

7.3 Failure to Deliver Products.

(a) If Seller is unable or otherwise fails to supply the Products by the delivery date(s) or meet quantity or quality requirements in accordance with the Contract (or indicates that it will not meet any future delivery date), Purchaser may: (i) cancel all or a portion of the Contract or Release without liability and return rejected Products at Seller's cost; (ii) require Seller to deliver Products using expedited delivery methods necessary to meet delivery schedules set forth in Releases (in which case all costs and expenses of such expedited delivery shall be at Seller's sole expense unless the delay or expense was solely the result of Purchaser's gross negligence and Seller provides Purchaser with notice of any claim against Purchaser within ten (10) days after the occurrence of the alleged negligent action of Purchaser); and/or (iii) purchase substitute Goods and alternative Services from other suppliers and hold Seller liable for the difference between the price of the Goods or Services to have been provided by Seller and amounts charged for the substitute performance, including charges for shipping, insurance, handling and taxes, and other costs incurred by Purchaser as a result of Seller's failure.

(b) If the remedies of this Section 7.3 alone or together, are insufficient to meet Purchaser's requirements or if Seller will be unable to comply with such provisions (as determined by Purchaser in its sole discretion), Seller's default hereunder shall be deemed to subject Purchaser to irreparable and continuing injury for which remedies at law would be inadequate and, accordingly, Purchaser shall have the right to apply at any time to a judicial authority for appropriate injunctive relief (or other interim or conservatory measures) without the posting of any bond, including, as applicable, the exercise of the rights set forth in Section 2-716 of the Uniform Commercial Code and/or as otherwise available at law or in equity.

7.4 Other Remedies. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if Seller breaches the representations and/or warranties set forth in Section 4, Purchaser shall notify Seller and Seller shall, if requested by Purchaser, reimburse Purchaser for any special, incidental and consequential damages caused by non-conforming or defective Products, including costs, attorneys' fees, expenses and losses incurred by Purchaser, including (a) in inspecting, sorting, testing, repairing or replacing such non-conforming or defective Products; (b) resulting from production interruptions, and (c) in connection with claims for personal injury (including death) or property damage caused by such non-conforming or defective Products. If requested by Purchaser, Seller shall, without charge to Purchaser, administer and process warranty charge-backs for non-conforming or defective Products in accordance with Purchaser's directions.

8. Price; Payment Terms.

8.1 Price. The purchase price(s) for Products are listed on the Purchase Order and are (a) not subject to increase (including any increase based upon currency fluctuations, changes in raw material or component pricing, labor or overhead), unless specifically agreed to by Purchaser in writing, (b) inclusive of taxes, if any, as set forth in Section 9, and any duties applicable to provision of the Products, and (c) inclusive of all storage, handling, packaging, labeling, shipping and all other expenses and charges, and any charges for non-returnable packaging shall be deducted from the purchase price if Purchaser elects to use returnable packaging.

8.2 Payment Terms. Except as otherwise provided in the Purchase Order, Purchaser shall pay Seller for Products as provided in the Contract. All payments of undisputed invoices are due Net 60 end of month from the date of invoice, provided, however, Purchaser may withhold payment for any invoiced charges that Purchaser disputes in good faith or as provided in Section 11 (Setoff and Recoupment) below. Payment of charges shall not be deemed an approval of such charges or acceptance of non-conforming or defective Products, and Purchaser may later dispute such charges, and payment of charges shall not relieve Seller of any of its warranties or other obligations under the Contract, or limit or affect any rights or remedies of Purchaser. Any amount paid by Purchaser to Seller for the Products will not be deemed to be a waiver of any breach by the Seller or any amount otherwise due to Purchaser under the Contract.

8.3 Seller represents and warrants that all prices comply with all applicable Laws in effect at the time of quotation, sale and delivery. Seller agrees that any price reduction implemented by Seller for any Products or related charges will apply to all shipments of such Products under the Purchase Order or any Purchase Order amendment from and after Seller's implementation of the price reduction. Seller shall ensure that the price charged to Purchaser for Products remains competitive with the price for similar goods or services available to Purchaser from other sellers.

8.4 Seller agrees to participate in any cost savings and productivity programs initiated by Purchaser and to implement Seller's own cost savings and productivity programs and initiatives to reduce Seller's costs. Purchaser shall also receive the full benefit of all discounts, and other favorable terms of payment customarily offered by Seller to its customers. In the event Seller reduces its price for similar goods and services during the term of the Contract, Seller agrees to reduce the prices of Products to Purchaser correspondingly. Seller warrants that the prices in the Purchase Order shall be complete, and no additional charges of any type shall be added without Purchaser's express written consent.

9. Taxes. Unless prohibited by Law or stated in the Contract, (a) Seller shall pay all federal, state or local tax, transportation tax, or other tax, including customs duties and tariffs, which is required to be imposed upon the Products ordered, or by reason of their sale or delivery and (b) all Purchase Order prices shall be deemed to have included all such taxes. Purchaser shall withhold all applicable taxes from amounts payable to Seller, without liability to Seller therefor, if such withholding is required by Law, and, in such event, Purchaser may require Seller to indicate on each invoice the percentage of Services performed within the United States. If Seller is required by Law to pay or collect from Purchaser any taxes or charges, Seller will provide a separate invoice to Purchaser for such taxes or charges, subject to Purchaser's rights with respect to export and trade credits under Section 6.2.

10. Invoices. Invoices may only be issued upon transfer of title to Products to Purchaser and Purchaser's acceptance of the Products. Payment will be deemed to occur upon mailing of a check, wire transfer, the initiation of a funds transfer, or commencement of other means of payment to Seller. All invoices will be issued in the currency set forth in the Contract. All invoices for Products provided pursuant to the Purchase Order must reference the Purchase Order number, Purchase Order amendment or Release number, as applicable, Purchaser's part number, Seller's part number where applicable, quantity of pieces in shipment, number of cartons or containers, Seller's name and number, and bill of lading number, before any payment will be made for Products by Purchaser. In addition, no invoice may reference any term separate from or different than the Contract. Purchaser reserves the right to return all invoices or related documents submitted incorrectly. Payment terms will commence upon the receipt and input of a correct invoice. Seller's submission of an invoice constitutes a written certification that the quantities of Products and the amounts contained on such invoice are true and accurate and that such Products have been delivered in accordance with, and Seller is otherwise in compliance with, the terms of the Contract. Any payment by Purchaser of a non-conforming invoice is not an acceptance of any non-conforming or additional terms on such invoice.

11. Setoff and Recoupment.

11.1 In addition to any right of setoff or recoupment allowed by Law, all amounts due Seller or any of its Affiliates shall be considered net of indebtedness or obligations of Seller to Purchaser and its Affiliates, and Purchaser may setoff against or recoup from any amounts due or to become due from Seller or any of its Affiliates to Purchaser and its Affiliates however and whenever arising, including the Purchaser's attorneys' fees and costs of enforcement. In the event that Purchaser or any of its Affiliates reasonably feels at risk, Purchaser may withhold and recoup a corresponding amount due Seller and its Affiliates to protect against such risk.

11.2 If an obligation of Seller or any of its Affiliates to Purchaser is disputed, contingent or unliquidated, Purchaser may defer payment of all or any portion of the amount due until such obligation is resolved. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing and by way of example only, in the event of a bankruptcy of Seller, if all of the Purchase Orders between Purchaser and Seller have not been assumed, then Purchaser may defer payment to Seller, by an administrative hold or otherwise, for Products until claims for rejection and other damages are resolved. In the event of a Seller Insolvency, Purchaser also may setoff, recoup, and/or withhold from amounts due Seller or any of its Affiliates any amounts that Seller is obligated to indemnify Purchaser pursuant to the Purchase Order, regardless of whether such amounts become due before or after the filing of a petition for bankruptcy protection by Seller.

12. Intellectual Property.

12.1 Background IP. Each Party is, and shall remain, the sole and exclusive owner of, and retain all right, title and interest in and to, any Intellectual Property and Intellectual Property Rights created, developed, first reduced to practice or owned by or for such Party or its Affiliates, either alone or with others (both domestic and foreign) (a) prior to the Effective Date or prior to the date Purchaser and Seller began any technical cooperation relating to the Products contracted, whichever is earlier, or (b) subsequent to the earliest date identified in (a) of this clause if invented, created or developed separately and independently of the Contract and/or the Products (“Background IP”).

12.2 Foreground IP. “Foreground IP” means any Intellectual Property, and all Intellectual Property Rights therein, that is conceived, created, developed, or first reduced to practice by or for (a) Purchaser alone, (b) Purchaser and Seller jointly, or (c) Seller that is created in the course of or as a result of any work performed under the Contract (including any improvement in the design of the Products or any alternative or improved method of accomplishing the objectives under the Contract, as well as any reduction to practice of any subject matter, application or discovery which could be patented or copyrighted). Notwithstanding the foregoing, Foreground IP shall not include Background IP.

12.3 Foreground IP Ownership. Seller hereby assigns, and agrees to assign, to Purchaser ownership of all right, title, and interest in the Foreground IP, and further agrees to cooperate with Purchaser and assist in the preparation and execution of all documents relating to any effort by or on behalf of Purchaser to apply for, obtain, maintain, transfer, or enforce any Intellectual Property Right related to the Foreground IP. All Foreground IP created in the course of, or as a result of, any work by or for Seller in connection with the Contract are the sole and exclusive property of Purchaser. Seller agrees that all Foreground IP created by Seller in connection with the Contract are “works made for hire” on behalf of Purchaser as that term is used in connection with the U.S. Copyright Act and/or created under the “hired-to-invent” doctrine in respective patent laws on behalf of Purchaser. The Intellectual Property Rights in such works, including all of the exclusive rights therein, will be promptly transferred and formally assigned free of charge to Purchaser. Seller shall promptly disclose all Foreground IP to Purchaser and shall cooperate (and cause its employees and contractors to cooperate) in executing any documents and taking any other actions necessary or convenient to patent, copyright, assign to Purchaser or otherwise perfect or protect such Foreground IP for the benefit of Purchaser.

12.4 Background IP Licenses. Seller hereby grants to Purchaser, and to Purchaser’s subcontractors, suppliers, and customers in connection with Products or work being performed for Purchaser, a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free, fully paid-up, perpetual, irrevocable license, with right to sublicense to Purchaser’s Affiliates, all of Seller’s Background IP necessary to use, distribute, reproduce, display publicly, copy, modify, perform publicly, repair, remanufacture, rebuild, reconstruct, offer to sell, sell and import, make or have made and create derivative works of the Products. The license granted to Purchaser under this article also includes the right to grant sublicenses to its customers as reasonably required in connection with customer’s operation, maintenance, overhaul, and modification of any item including and/or utilizing software.

12.5 Restrictions.

(a) Seller may only use Foreground IP and Rivian’s Background IP (collectively, “Rivian Material”) for the purposes of performing Seller’s obligations under the Contract.

(b) Seller shall not use for its own purposes or sell or otherwise distribute to any third party any products that contain or that are based upon any Rivian Material.

(c) Seller shall not engage in, nor will it authorize others to engage in, the reverse engineering, disassembly or the decompilation of any Rivian Material except as required to perform its obligations under the Contract.

(d) Seller shall not use any Rivian Material provided or developed under the Contract for the purpose of (i) identifying or providing evidence to support any potential patent infringement claim against Purchaser, its direct or indirect suppliers, or direct or indirect customers, (ii) filing patent application; (iii) modifying its pending patent applications or the claims of patents in any post-grant proceedings; or (iv) mapping or reviewing software, hardware and/or confidential information against patents, patent applications, claim charts or other like material.

12.6 Third Party Material; Open Source Code. Seller shall not incorporate any third party proprietary materials, information or Intellectual Property ("Third Party Material") into Products or other work product to be delivered to Purchaser, unless Seller has obtained for Purchaser a perpetual, worldwide, fully paid-up, royalty-free, non-exclusive license permitting Purchaser and its Affiliates to use, sublicense and distribute such Third Party Material in the conduct of their normal business operations. Seller shall not incorporate any Open Source Code into a Product or other work product to be delivered to Purchaser without Purchaser's express, prior written consent.

12.7 Subcontractors. Seller shall ensure that any subcontractors to Seller have contracts with Seller in writing consistent with the terms of this Section 12 to ensure that the protections required by Purchaser from Seller are also received from subcontractors for the benefit of Purchaser and Seller.

13. Changes.

13.1 Purchaser reserves the right at any time to direct changes, or cause Seller to make changes, to the Products including changes in the design (including drawings and Specifications), processing, methods of packaging and shipping and the date or place of delivery of the Products or to otherwise change the scope of the work covered by the Contract, including work with respect to such matters as inspection, testing or quality control, and Seller agrees to promptly make such changes. Any such changes shall be deemed not to affect the time for performance or cost under the Contract unless (a) Seller provides Purchaser with written notice of a claim for adjustment to time for performance or cost within ten (10) days after Purchaser's notice to Seller of the change and (b) after auditing such claim, Purchaser determines that an adjustment (up or down) is appropriate. Any such claim by Seller for adjustment to time for performance or cost under the Contract must be solely and directly the result of the change directed by Purchaser and any notice of such claim shall be effective only if accompanied by all relevant information sufficient for Purchaser to verify such claim. In addition, Purchaser shall have the right to audit all relevant records, facilities, work or materials of Seller to verify any claim. Seller shall consider and advise Purchaser of the impact of a design change on the system in which the Products covered by the Contract are used. Nothing in this Section 13.1 shall excuse Seller from proceeding with the Contract as changed.

13.2 Without the prior approval of Purchaser on the face of a Purchase Order amendment, Seller shall not make any changes to any Purchase Order or the Products, including changing (a) any third party supplier to Seller of services, raw materials or goods used by Seller in connection with its performance under the Contract, (b) the facility from which Seller or such supplier to Seller operates, (c) the price of any of the Products, (d) the nature, type or quality of any services, raw materials or goods used by Seller or its suppliers in connection with the Contract, (e) the fit, form, function, appearance, performance of any Products, or (f) the production method, or any process or software used in the production or provision of any Products.

14. Confidentiality.

14.1 Prior Non-Disclosure Agreements. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, in the event of any conflict between any provision of these Terms and Conditions and any prior non-disclosure or confidentiality agreement(s) executed between the Parties with respect to the disclosure, receipt and/or use of confidential or proprietary information, as applicable, the provisions of these Terms and Conditions shall prevail.

14.2 Restrictions on Disclosure and Use of Confidential Information. Each Party shall, and shall cause its Representatives to, hold the Confidential Information of the other Party in secrecy and confidence (in a manner consistent with the protection of its own confidential information of a similar nature, and in any event no less than a reasonable standard of care) in accordance with the provisions of these Terms and Conditions. Each Party shall not, and shall ensure that its Representatives do not, use the Confidential Information of the other Party for any purpose other than performance of such Party's obligations under the Contract. Each Party, in its capacity as the Receiving Party, shall not, and shall cause its Representatives not to, disclose, divulge, use, exploit (whether for its own benefit or the benefit of anyone other than the other Party), provide or otherwise make available any Confidential Information of the other Party to any Person other than in accordance with these Terms and Conditions and on a need-to-know basis, provided such Persons are bound in writing by confidentiality obligations that are applicable to the Confidential Information and are substantially as restrictive as the provisions of this Section 14 (or, in the case of accountants and attorneys, are bound by professional obligations of confidentiality), in order to permit those Persons to assist the Receiving Party in connection with performance of its obligations under the Contract. The Receiving Party shall notify the Disclosing Party in writing of any misuse, misappropriation or unauthorized disclosure of Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party promptly following knowledge or discovery (in each case after due inquiry) thereof. Upon the Disclosing Party's written request, the Receiving Party shall, at the Disclosing Party's option, either (a) deliver to the Disclosing Party all documents, notes, summaries, analysis, compilations and other recordings containing or reflecting the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information and all copies thereof or (b) destroy all such material, and in either case (a) or (b), an officer of the Receiving Party shall certify in writing to the Disclosing Party that the same has been done; provided, that copies of such Confidential Information may be retained by the Receiving Party if automatically stored pursuant to the Receiving Party's archival or record retention policies, provided such Confidential Information is not readily accessible and the Receiving Party complies with the confidentiality obligations and use restrictions in these Terms and Conditions for so long as such Confidential Information is so retained.

14.3 Disclosures Required by Law. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it shall not be a breach of these Terms and Conditions for the Receiving Party to disclose Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party if required to do so under Law or in a judicial, arbitral, or governmental proceeding or investigation, provided, that (a) the Disclosing Party has been given reasonable prior notice to allow it to take actions to protect its interest and the Receiving Party shall cooperate with all reasonable requests of the Disclosing Party in connection thereof, including any protective orders or other safeguards sought by the Disclosing Party and (b) the Receiving Party only discloses that portion of the Confidential Information (with a full copy to the Disclosing Party) required to be disclosed and shall preserve the confidentiality of all other Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party.

14.4 Ownership; No License Rights Granted; No Warranty. All Confidential Information shall remain the exclusive property of the Disclosing Party and nothing in these Terms and Conditions, or any course of conduct between the Parties, shall be deemed to grant the Receiving Party any license, right, title, or interest in or to the Confidential Information (unless explicitly set forth in the Contract or otherwise agreed in writing by the Parties).

The Receiving Party acquires no intellectual property license or rights under the Contract except the limited right to review and use such Confidential Information to perform its obligations under the Contract. All Confidential Information provided under the Contract is provided “AS IS” without any warranty, express, implied or otherwise, except that the Disclosing Party warrants that it has the right to disclose the Confidential Information to the Receiving Party.

14.5 Period of Confidentiality. Each Party’s confidentiality obligations under this Section 14 will survive the expiration or earlier termination of the Contract and continue for a period of five (5) years thereafter. Following the expiration or earlier termination of the Contract, and at any time during the term of the Contract, the Disclosing Party may request that the Receiving Party return or destroy all Confidential Information disclosed and within thirty (30) days after such request, the Receiving Party shall return or certify to the destruction of the Disclosing Party’s Confidential Information, as applicable.

14.6 Data Security. Seller shall: (a) establish, implement and maintain reasonable safeguards against the destruction, loss, alteration and unauthorized access and use of Purchaser’s Confidential Information in the possession or control of Seller (or its subcontractors) that are no less rigorous than those maintained by Seller for its own data of a similar nature; and (b) comply with Purchaser’s information and data security policies, copies of which are located at <https://rivian.com/legal/supplier>, or available upon request.

14.7 Non-Disparagement. During the term of the Contract and thereafter, Seller shall not make or publish any disparaging or derogatory statements with respect to Purchaser, or its integrity, business or professional standing or reputation, or that of any of its Representatives.

15. Purchaser’s Property.

15.1 The right, title and interest to all supplies, materials, tooling, jigs, dies, gauges, fixtures, molds, patterns, equipment, designs, drawings, specifications, spare parts, trial parts, ancillary products and other items owned by Purchaser and other items furnished or paid in full by Purchaser to Seller for use in manufacturing Products, or for which Seller is reimbursed by Purchaser or its customers (“Purchaser’s Property”), shall be owned by Purchaser. Seller shall not purchase on the account of or charge Purchaser for any Purchaser’s Property except as authorized in a Purchase Order. Title to Purchaser’s Property that is not already owned by Purchaser shall transfer to Purchaser upon Purchaser’s payment in full for such property.

15.2 All Purchaser’s Property is being held by Seller, and to the extent Seller is authorized to transfer any Purchaser’s Property to Seller’s approved sub-suppliers and subcontractors, by such sub-suppliers and subcontractors, as bailees-at-will. Seller shall inform Seller’s approved sub-suppliers and subcontractors in writing that they are bailees-at-will, through the Seller, of Purchaser’s Property. In addition to Seller’s obligations with respect to Purchaser’s Property under the Law, Seller shall: (a) properly maintain, at its expense, in good condition and repair, normal wear and tear excepted, the Purchaser’s Property on Seller’s premises (or with Purchaser’s prior written approval, Seller’s approved sub-suppliers and subcontractors); (b) not use the Purchaser’s Property for any purpose other than for performance under the Contract; (c) affix asset identification tags to the Purchaser’s Property identifying it as property of Purchaser and displaying the asset identification information provided by the Purchaser with respect to such asset (asset identification tags shall be of a material and affixture method that is suitable for the anticipated useful life of the Purchaser’s Property in its intended operating environment), and provide photographic verification (in a form reasonably requested by Purchaser) to Purchaser prior to Purchaser’s reimbursement to Seller of any applicable amount or at any other time upon Purchaser’s request; (d) permit Purchaser to affix or remove any identification tags to and from the Purchaser’s Property at any time at Purchaser’s expense; (e) refrain from commingling the Purchaser’s Property with the property of Seller or with that of a third party; (f) adequately insure the Purchaser's Property against loss or damage, including maintaining full fire and extended coverage insurance for replacement value and naming Purchaser as an additional insured; (g) keep a written inventory of all Purchaser's Property and, upon request by Purchaser, provide such written inventory of Purchaser's Property to Purchaser or its designee; and (h) not move the Purchaser's Property to another location whether owned by Seller or a third party, without the prior written consent of Purchaser, other than for maintenance and/or storage of Purchaser's Property. Purchaser shall have the right to enter Seller's premises at reasonable times to inspect the Purchaser's Property and Seller's records pertaining thereto. All replacement parts, additions, improvements, and accessories to Purchaser's Property shall become part of Purchaser's Property. Seller shall provide Purchaser notice of unusual wear and tear of Purchaser's Property and shall notify Purchaser in advance of the Lead Time required to replace such Purchaser's Property if the Purchaser's Property is likely to wear out prior to such Lead Time.

15.3 If Seller is responsible for fabricating or acquiring Purchaser's Property, such Purchaser's Property will: (a) comply with all Specifications; (b) be capable of producing Products that conform to the terms of the Contract, including meeting any volume requirements or estimates provided to Seller during the life of the Product as well as satisfying the requirements for service parts; and (c) be clearly and permanently marked as Purchaser's Property according to Purchaser's direction. Seller shall provide progress reports upon Purchaser's request and will promptly notify Purchaser in writing if it believes that Purchaser's Property may not be ready for operation or use by the completion date specified on the Purchase Order. The foregoing is in addition to Seller's other obligations and Purchaser's other rights and remedies at law, in equity, and in the Contract.

15.4 Seller expressly waives and releases, and agrees not to file or otherwise assert or prosecute or suffer to permit any statutory, equitable or other liens, including any molder liens, tool liens, builder liens, construction liens, and the like, that Seller has or might have on or in connection with the Purchaser's Property for all work, including designing, manufacturing, improving, maintaining, servicing, using, assembling, fabricating or developing the Purchaser's Property. Seller will assign to Purchaser any claims (including all manufacturer warranty claims) Seller has against third parties with respect to Purchaser's Property. Seller shall assume all risk of death or injury to Persons or damage to property arising from use of the Purchaser's Property.

15.5 Seller shall assign to Purchaser contract rights or claims in which Seller has an interest with respect to Purchaser's Property and execute, or authorize Purchaser to file, financing statements or similar documents with the appropriate filing authority to give notice of Purchaser's ownership interest in the Purchaser's Property. Failure to file a financing statement will not alter or amend Purchaser's ownership rights to the Purchaser's Property.

15.6 In the event that it becomes necessary, as determined by either Purchaser or Seller, to replace any of Purchaser's Property due to normal use by the Seller, or otherwise, said replacement of such Purchaser's Property shall be at the sole expense of the Seller and said replacement Purchaser's Property shall remain the property of the Purchaser. Seller will pay personal property taxes for all Purchaser's Property in Seller's possession or under Seller's control.

15.7 Purchaser does not guarantee the accuracy of any Purchaser's Property or the availability or suitability of any supplies or material furnished by it. Seller assumes sole responsibility for inspecting, testing and approving all Purchaser's Property or other materials supplied by Purchaser prior to any use by Seller. Seller agrees that it will comply with its obligations hereunder to release Purchaser's Property notwithstanding any offsetting claim that it may have against Purchaser. Seller acknowledges and agrees that (a) Purchaser is bailing the Purchaser's Property to Seller for Seller's benefit, (b) Seller has inspected the Purchaser's Property and is satisfied that the Purchaser's Property is suitable and fit for its purposes, and (c) PURCHASER HAS NOT MADE AND DOES

NOT MAKE ANY WARRANTY OR REPRESENTATION WHATSOEVER, EITHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, AS TO THE FITNESS, CONDITION, MERCHANTABILITY, DESIGN, NON-INFRINGEMENT, OR OPERATION OF THE PURCHASER'S PROPERTY OR ITS FITNESS FOR ANY PARTICULAR PURPOSE, ALL OF WHICH ARE EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMED. Purchaser shall not be liable to Seller for any loss, damage, injury or expense of any kind or nature caused, directly or indirectly, by the Purchaser's Property, including its use or maintenance, or its repair, service or adjustment, or by any interruption of service or for any loss of business whatsoever or howsoever caused, including any anticipatory damages, loss of profits or any other indirect, special or consequential damages.

15.8 Purchaser has the right to the sole, unencumbered, unqualified, and absolute possession of Purchaser's Property at any time as elected by Purchaser and Seller will immediately release to Purchaser upon request, and Purchaser may retake immediate possession of Purchaser's Property at any time with or without cause and without payment of any kind unless otherwise provided in the Contract. Seller will release the requested Purchaser's Property to Purchaser FCA Seller's facility (Incoterms 2020), properly packed and marked in accordance with the requirements of Purchaser's carrier. Seller hereby grants to Purchaser an unconditional right of entry to inspect and remove Purchaser's Property from the premises where Purchaser's Property is located without liability in trespass for such entry. Any failure or threatened failure by Seller to perform its obligations under this Section 15.8 for any reason whatsoever shall entitle Purchaser, in addition to any other remedy to which Purchaser may be entitled, to institute and prosecute proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction to obtain temporary and/or permanent injunctive or other equitable relief to enforce any provision hereof without the necessity of posting bond or proof of action, injury or damage. The foregoing is in addition to Seller's other obligations and Purchaser's other rights and remedies at law, in equity, and in the Contract.

16. Compliance with Laws.

16.1 Seller shall comply with all applicable Laws that regulate the sale, manufacture, labeling, transportation, licensing, approval or certification of the Products, including: (a) all applicable export control and sanctions Laws of the United States and any other relevant country; and (b) those relating to environmental matters, data protection and privacy, wages, hours and conditions of employment, subcontractor selection, discrimination, occupational health and safety and motor vehicle safety. The Contract shall be deemed to incorporate by reference all the clauses required by the provisions of said Laws. At Purchaser's request, Seller shall certify in writing its compliance with the foregoing.

16.2 Seller agrees that during the period in which it ships Goods to Purchaser, it and its subcontractors who either ship directly or package goods for shipment shall either (a) be certified under the Customs Trade Partnership Against Terrorism ("C-TPAT") program by the U.S. Bureau of Customs and Border Protection or (b) comply with applicable trade security programs including, as applicable, the C-TPAT security procedures that may be found on the U.S. customs website at www.cbp.gov.

16.3 Seller certifies and further warrants that neither Seller nor any of its employees, sub-suppliers, subcontractors, vendors and/or Affiliates shall utilize Forced Labor (as defined below), or engage in abusive worker treatment or corrupt business practices in the sale of Products or parts of Products under the Contract. Additionally, none of the funds appropriated or otherwise used for the Products shall be used to knowingly procure any products mined, produced, or manufactured wholly or in part by Forced Labor. Seller shall promptly provide due diligence, documentation and/or traceability information upon request from Purchaser. "Forced Labor" means any work or service that is exacted from any person under the menace of any penalty for its nonperformance and that the worker does not offer to perform voluntarily.

17. Insurance. Seller shall maintain insurance in amounts as are specified by Purchaser, naming Purchaser as an additional insured, and covering general liability, public liability, product liability, product recall, completed operations, contractor's liability, automobile liability insurance, Worker's Compensation, and employer's liability insurance as will adequately protect Purchaser against damages, liabilities, claims, losses and expenses (including attorneys' fees) with respect thereto. Seller will also insure for replacement value all machinery, equipment, tools, Purchaser Property and other property or items necessary to perform under the Contract. All insurance coverage shall be primary coverage to Purchaser regardless of any other coverage Purchaser receives or is entitled to receive. Seller shall not cancel, allow to lapse, or reduce the foregoing insurance without Purchaser's prior written consent. Seller agrees to submit certificates of insurance evidencing its insurance coverage, when and as requested by Purchaser.

18. Indemnification; Recalls.

18.1 General. Seller shall indemnify, defend, hold harmless, and reimburse Purchaser, its Affiliates and its and their respective directors, officers, employees, contractors, representatives, invitees, agents and customers (collectively, "Indemnitees") from and against all liability, demands, claims, losses, costs, actions, judgments, fines, penalties, damages and expenses, including expert and attorneys' fees, (collectively, "Liabilities") incurred by the Indemnitees due to, or otherwise arising out of any Claim against any Indemnitee or otherwise incurred by any Indemnitee that arises from or relates to: (a) Seller's noncompliance or breach of any representation, warranty or obligation under the Contract (including these Terms and Conditions); (b) any service campaign, product recall campaign, corrective action, or other voluntary or involuntary action or effort in which Purchaser participates with respect to the Products; (c) any spill, discharge, or emission of hazardous wastes or substances caused by or in any way attributable to Seller, its directors, officers, employees, contractors, representatives, invitees, and/or agents; (d) any infringement or misappropriation of any Intellectual Property Right relating to any Product or any portion thereof; (e) releasing, terminating or otherwise removing any lien placed on the Purchaser's Property; (f) any product liability claim; or (g) any personal injury claim, including death or injury, or damage to property, caused by Seller, its employees, agents, subcontractors, or in any way attributable to the performance or omission of Seller, its employees, agents, or invitees. Seller waives the application of the doctrine of comparative negligence and other doctrines that may otherwise allocate the liability covered by Seller's indemnity. This indemnification obligation shall apply regardless of whether the Claim arises in tort, negligence, contract, warranty, strict liability or otherwise.

18.2 Indemnification Procedure. Purchaser shall give Seller prompt written notice of any Claim for which indemnification is sought under this Section 18. Failure to give notice will not diminish Seller's obligation under this Section 18. When provided notice of any actual or potential Liabilities, Seller, at Purchaser's option and at Seller's expense, will undertake defense of such actual or potential Liabilities through counsel approved by Purchaser. Seller may select legal counsel to represent the Indemnitees (said counsel to be reasonably satisfactory to Purchaser) and otherwise control the defense of such Claim; provided, however, that Seller shall first obtain authorization from Purchaser before settlement is made of the actual or potential Liabilities if the terms of such settlement (a) require any action or inaction by Purchaser or any Affiliate thereof or (b) could materially adversely affect Purchaser, including any terms which admit the existence of a defect in Products or a failure of Purchaser to fully and faithfully perform its obligations. In the alternative, Purchaser may elect to undertake defense of such Liabilities to the extent asserted against Purchaser, and Seller shall reimburse Purchaser on a monthly basis for all expenses, attorneys' fees, and other costs incurred by Purchaser.

18.3 Infringement Claims. If the Products become, or in Seller's reasonable opinion are likely to become, the subject of a claim of infringement or misappropriation of any Intellectual Property Rights, Seller shall, at its sole expense, either (a) promptly procure for Purchaser the right to continue to use the Products, or (b) replace or modify the Products to make it non-infringing, provided that the modified Products meet the Specifications and all other requirements under the Contract.

18.4 Recalls. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if the Products, or the Purchaser Products that incorporates such Products, are subject to removal from the stream of commerce or are the subject of any service campaign, product recall campaign, corrective action plan or other remedial action initiated by a Governmental Authority, Seller, or Purchaser, in each case, due to a nonconformity in the Products, the failure of the Products to comply with the representations, warranties, and covenants in the Contract, or to otherwise address an actual or alleged defect or condition in the Products that relates to motor vehicle safety or any failure of the Products to comply with any applicable Law, safety standard or guideline (collectively, a “Recall”), Seller shall be responsible for all Liabilities, costs, and expenses associated with the Recall or otherwise incurred by an Indemnitee in addressing or implementing the Recall, including but not limited to refunds, transportation costs, consumer notification and contact, and all other costs and expenses in inspecting, investigating, sorting, testing, repairing or replacing the Products. Except as otherwise required by applicable Law, Seller agrees that Purchaser reserves the right to determine all aspects of a Recall that involves Purchaser Products, including when to conduct one and its implementation. Seller shall promptly inform Purchaser of it becoming aware of any defect or nonconformity in the Products that could reasonably be expected to lead to Recall or otherwise cause damage, illness, injury or death, or the noncompliance of the Products with any applicable safety or regulatory standard or Law, whether imposed by a Governmental Authority or by Purchaser. Seller shall promptly, and in no event later than twenty-four (24) hours after its receipt of a Recall notice from a Governmental Authority, inform Purchaser of the Recall.

19. Seller Financial and Operational Condition.

19.1 Seller represents and warrants to Purchaser as of the date of each Purchase Order and Release that: (a) it is not insolvent and is paying all debts as they become due; (b) it is in compliance with all loan covenants and other obligations; and (c) all financial information provided by Seller to Purchaser concerning Seller is accurate and has been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles of the jurisdiction in which it operates.

19.2 Upon Purchaser’s request, Seller shall permit Purchaser and its representatives to review Seller’s books and records concerning Seller’s compliance with the Contract. Seller agrees that, if Seller experiences any delivery or operational problems, Purchaser may, but is not required to, designate a representative to be present in Seller’s applicable facility to observe Seller’s operations. Seller agrees that, if Purchaser provides to Seller any accommodations (financial or otherwise, including providing designated representatives as set forth above) that are necessary for Seller to fulfill its obligations under the Contract, Seller shall reimburse Purchaser for all costs, including attorneys’ and other professionals’ fees, incurred by Purchaser in connection with such accommodation and shall grant a right of access to Purchaser to use Seller’s premises, machinery, equipment and other property necessary for the production of Products (and a lien to secure the access right) under an access and security agreement. Additionally, Seller agrees to provide prompt written notice to Purchaser of any impending or threatened insolvency of the Seller.

19.3 Purchaser may immediately terminate the Contract (in whole or in part) without any liability of Purchaser to Seller upon the occurrence of any of the following or any other similar or comparable event (each, a “Seller Insolvency”): (a) insolvency of Seller; (b) Seller’s inability to promptly provide Purchaser with adequate and reasonable assurance of Seller’s financial capability to perform timely any of Seller’s obligations under the Contract; (c) filing of a voluntary petition in bankruptcy by Seller; (d) filing of an involuntary petition in bankruptcy against Seller; (e) appointment of a receiver or trustee for Seller; or (f) execution of an assignment for the benefit of creditors of Seller. Seller shall reimburse Purchaser for all costs incurred by Purchaser in connection with a Seller Insolvency, including all attorneys' fees and other professional fees.

20. Audit Rights. Purchaser and/or its authorized Representatives shall have the right at any reasonable time to access Seller's premises to examine all relevant documents, records, or other relevant information to verify Seller's compliance with the Contract, and to validate Seller's performance or ability to perform under the Contract. Seller agrees to reasonably cooperate in any such audit request by the Purchaser.

21. Term and Termination.

21.1 Duration. Subject to Section 35 (Survival), the Contract shall be effective as of the Effective Date and shall remain in effect until terminated under this Section 21 or by mutual written agreement of the Parties. For the avoidance of doubt, in the event of a termination of a portion of the Contract, Seller is not excused from performance of those portions of the Contract not terminated.

21.2 Termination for Default. Purchaser may terminate immediately (or such other time as set forth in Purchaser's termination notice) all or any part of the Contract, without any liability of Purchaser to Seller, in the event of any default by Seller. Seller is in default if: (a) Seller fails to perform or breaches any obligations under the Contract; (b) Seller repudiates, breaches or threatens to breach any of the terms of the Contract; (c) Seller breaches any representation or warranty in the Contract; (d) Seller fails to provide Purchaser with adequate and reasonable assurance of Seller's ability to perform timely any of Seller's obligations under the Contract, including delivery of Products; (e) Seller fails to meet reasonable quality requirements so as to endanger timely and proper performance of the Contract; or (f) in the event of a Seller Insolvency.

21.3 Termination for Change of Control. In addition to its other remedies, Purchaser may, at its option, terminate all or any part of the Contract immediately (or such other time as set forth in Purchaser's termination notice) without any liability to Seller for a change of control of Seller. A change of control of Seller includes: (a) the sale, lease or exchange of a substantial portion of Seller's assets used for the production of Products, or the entrance into an agreement by Seller regarding the same; (b) the sale or exchange of more than 20% of Seller's stock or other ownership interest (or of such lesser percentage as would result in a change of control of Seller), or the entrance into an agreement regarding the same; (c) the execution of a voting or other agreement providing a Person with control of Seller or control of more than 20% of Seller's stock or other ownership interest (or of such lesser percentage as would result in a change of control of Seller). Seller shall notify Purchaser promptly in writing in the event of the earlier of (i) the entrance into an agreement, or (ii) the occurrence of an event, described above in this Section 21.3.

21.4 Termination for Convenience. In addition to any other right of Purchaser to terminate the Contract, Purchaser may at its option, immediately (or such other time as set forth in Purchaser's termination notice) terminate all or any part of the Contract at any time and for any reason by giving written notice to Seller.

21.5 Termination Claims; Obligations Following Termination.

(a) Upon the effective date referenced in any notice of termination pursuant to Sections 21.3 or 21.4, Seller, unless otherwise directed in writing by Purchaser, shall (i) terminate immediately all work under the Purchase Order; (ii) transfer title and deliver to Purchaser usable and merchantable finished Products, work in process, and raw materials/components, in quantities not to exceed those directed by Purchaser in writing, that Seller produced or acquired in accordance with Release amounts under the Purchase Order and which Seller cannot use in producing Products for itself or for others; (iii) take actions reasonably necessary to protect property in Seller's possession in which Purchaser has an interest; (iv) upon Purchaser's request, cooperate with Purchaser in effecting the resourcing of the Products covered by the Purchase Order to an alternative supplier designated by Purchaser and otherwise comply with obligations as stated in Section 21.6; and (v) grant Purchaser all rights to the Purchaser's Property in accordance with Section 15.1.

(b) Upon the effective date referenced in any notice of termination pursuant to Section 21.2, Seller, unless otherwise directed in writing by Purchaser, shall (i) terminate immediately all work under the applicable Purchase Order; (ii) take actions reasonably necessary to protect property in Seller's possession in which Purchaser has an interest; (iii) upon Purchaser's request, cooperate with Purchaser in effecting the resourcing of the Products covered by the Purchase Order to an alternative supplier designated by Purchaser and otherwise comply with obligations as stated in Section 21.6; and (iv) grant Purchaser all rights to the Purchaser's Property in accordance with Section 15.1. For the avoidance of doubt, Seller shall not be entitled to any further payments by Purchaser.

(c) Upon termination of the Contract by Purchaser under Sections 21.3 or 21.4, Purchaser shall pay to Seller the following amounts without duplication: (i) the Purchase Order price for all finished and completed Products that conform to the requirements of the Purchase Order and have not previously been paid for; and (ii) Seller's reasonable actual cost of the usable and merchantable work in process and raw materials/components transferred to Purchaser in accordance with Section 21.5(a)(ii) or that Seller produced or acquired in accordance with Release amounts under the Purchase Order and which Seller cannot use in producing Products for itself or for others; provided, however, Purchaser's liability to make payments to Seller under this Section 21.5(c) shall not exceed the aggregate price payable by Purchaser to Seller for finished Products that would have been delivered by Seller under a Release in the four (4) weeks following the effective date of termination or, if no Release is outstanding, under the Purchase Order.

(d) Except as expressly set forth in this Section 21, Purchaser shall not be liable for and shall not be required to make payments to Seller, directly or on account of claims by Seller's subcontractors, for any other alleged losses or costs, whether denominated as loss of anticipated profit, unabsorbed overhead, interest on claims, product development and engineering costs, facilities and equipment rearrangement costs or rental, unamortized depreciation costs, ancillary exit charges (including costs of riggers, warehousing, premium manufacturing costs, loading of trucks or other standard business procedures related to transitioning production to an alternative supplier), capital costs or expenditures, internal labor costs or charges, or general and administrative burden charges resulting from termination of the Contract or otherwise. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, Purchaser's obligation to Seller upon termination shall not exceed the obligation Purchaser would have had to Seller in the absence of termination.

(e) Within thirty (30) days after the effective date of termination under Sections 21.3 or 21.4, Seller shall furnish to Purchaser its termination claim, together with all supporting data. Supporting data must be sufficient to permit the Purchaser to verify and substantiate the claim. Purchaser (and its Representatives) have the right, before or after payment, to examine and audit all pertinent items related to the claim, including books, records, invoices, facilities, work-in-process, raw materials, and inventory. All other claims are waived and the termination claim is Seller's sole and exclusive remedy for a termination of the Contract under Sections 21.3 or 21.4. If Seller fails to provide its termination claim, including supporting data, within the applicable period, then Seller shall be deemed to have waived all rights associated with such claim.

21.6 Transition of Supply. Upon the expiration or earlier termination of the Contract for whatever reason, Seller agrees to take all actions necessary in order to ensure that there is no interruption in the supply of Products to Purchaser. In addition to all other obligations of Seller hereunder, Seller agrees to take such actions as may be reasonably requested by Purchaser, whether requested before or after the termination of the Contract, to accomplish the transition from Seller to an alternative seller, including the following: (a) Seller shall provide a sufficient bank of Products and/or raw material, components, or parts of Products to ensure the orderly transition to any alternative seller chosen by Purchaser; (b) Seller shall provide to Purchaser all tooling, Purchaser's Property and any other property furnished by or belonging to Purchaser or any of Purchaser's customers in as good a condition as when received by Seller, reasonable wear and tear excepted; (c) Purchaser reserves the right to access and actively participate during the disconnect or disassemble process for the Purchaser's Property, and the location, time and date of the exit shall be mutually agreeable between the Purchaser and Seller; and (d) Seller shall, at Purchaser's option: (i) assign to Purchaser any or all supply contracts or purchase orders for raw material, components, or parts of Products; (ii) sell to Purchaser, at Seller's cost, any or all perishable tooling and inventory relating to the Products; and/or (iii) sell to Purchaser any of Seller's property necessary to perform under the Contract, at a price equal to the lower of the fair market value of such property or the net book value of such property less any amounts Purchaser has paid to Seller for the cost of such property. Unless otherwise agreed to by Purchaser in writing, Seller, at its sole expense, shall furnish, keep in good condition, and replace when necessary all machinery, equipment, tools and other property or items necessary to perform under the Contract. Seller shall provide documentation supporting the original cost of any such property. The term "alternative seller" expressly includes, but is not limited to, a Purchaser-owned facility or Purchaser or any Affiliate thereof.

21.7 No Termination Right by Seller. Because Purchaser's commitments to its customers are made in reliance on Seller's commitments under the Contract (including each Purchase Order), Seller has no right to terminate the Contract or any Purchase Order.

22. Limitation of Liability. IN NO EVENT SHALL PURCHASER BE LIABLE TO SELLER FOR ANTICIPATED OR LOST PROFITS, INTEREST, PENALTIES OR FOR ANY INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, SPECIAL, EXEMPLARY OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES IN CONNECTION WITH THE CONTRACT. NOR SHALL PURCHASER UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES BE LIABLE TO SELLER FOR ANY FEES, INCLUDING ATTORNEY OR CONSULTING FEES, OR ANY STATUTORY DAMAGES.

UNLESS RIVIAN OR ITS AFFILIATE IS EXPRESSLY IDENTIFIED AS PURCHASER IN A CONTRACT, SELLER ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT NEITHER RIVIAN NOR ANY OTHER AFFILIATE OF RIVIAN (OTHER THAN THE SPECIFIED PURCHASER) WILL HAVE ANY LIABILITY TO SELLER UNDER THE CONTRACT (INCLUDING ANY PURCHASE ORDER) AND SELLER HEREBY WAIVES ALL CLAIMS, LIABILITIES, AND DEMANDS AGAINST SUCH PARTIES.

23. Force Majeure. Any delay or failure of either Party to perform its obligations shall be excused if it is caused by an extraordinary and unforeseeable event beyond the control of the nonperforming Party and without the nonperforming Party's fault or negligence, such as acts of God, fires, floods, windstorms, explosions, riots, natural disasters, wars and sabotage. Written notice of such delay, including the anticipated duration of the delay, must be given by the nonperforming Party to the other Party within twenty-four (24) hours of the event. During the period of any delay or failure to perform by Seller, Purchaser, at its option, may purchase Products from other sources and reduce its schedules to Seller by such quantities, without liability to Purchaser, or cause Seller to provide the Products from other sources in quantities and at times requested by Purchaser and at the price set forth in the applicable Purchase Order(s). If requested by Purchaser, Seller shall provide adequate assurance that the delay will not exceed such period of time as Purchaser deems appropriate. If the delay lasts more than the time period specified by Purchaser, or Seller does not provide adequate assurance that the delay will cease within such time period, Purchaser may, among its other remedies, immediately cancel the Contract or any Purchase Order, and all outstanding Releases issued pursuant thereto, without liability. Additionally, Seller shall reimburse Purchaser for any increase in price that Purchaser is required to pay to a substitute supplier in order to obtain the Products. Seller acknowledges and agrees that the following will not excuse performance by Seller under theories of force majeure, commercial impracticability or otherwise and Seller expressly assumes the following risks: (a) change in cost or availability of materials, labor, components or services whether based on market conditions, supplier actions, contract disputes, or otherwise; and (b) failure of Seller's internal business systems related to the proper processing of information that results in any defect or failure in products or services, deliveries, or any other aspect of performance by Seller or its subcontractors. Purchaser may cancel the Contract or any Purchase Order at any time prior to delivery or performance if its business is interrupted for reasons beyond Purchaser's reasonable control. Purchaser shall give prompt notice of such cancellation to Seller.

24. Labor Disputes. Seller shall notify Purchaser in writing of any actual or potential labor dispute delaying or threatening to delay timely performance of the Contract. Seller shall notify Purchaser in writing six (6) months in advance of the expiration of any current labor contracts. Seller shall deliver a supply of finished Products at least thirty (30) days prior to the expiration of any such labor contract, in quantities and for storage at sites designated by Purchaser.

25. No Waiver. A waiver by Purchaser of any right or remedy shall not affect any rights or remedies subsequently arising under the same or similar clauses. The failure of the Purchaser to insist upon the performance of any term or condition of the Contract, or to exercise any right hereunder shall not be construed as a waiver of the future performance of any such term or condition or the exercise in the future of any such right. Any amount paid by Purchaser for the Products will not be deemed to be a waiver of any breach by the Seller or any amount otherwise due to Purchaser under the Contract.

26. Relationship of Parties. Seller and Purchaser are independent contracting parties and nothing in the Contract shall make either Party the agent or legal representative of the other for any purpose whatsoever, nor does it grant either Party any authority to assume or to create any obligation on behalf of or in the name of the other Party.

27. Assignment. Each Purchase Order is issued to Seller in reliance upon Seller's personal performance of the duties imposed. Seller agrees not to, in whole or in part, assign the Contract or delegate the performance of its duties therein without the written consent of Purchaser, and any attempt to do so shall be void ab initio. Any consent by Purchaser to an assignment shall not be deemed to waive Purchaser's right to recoupment from Seller and/or its assigns for any claim arising out of the Contract. Assignment shall not relieve Seller from its obligations of confidentiality under Section 14 hereof. Purchaser may, in its sole discretion, transfer or assign the Contract, in whole or in part, to any third party upon notice to Seller.

28. Subcontracting. Seller shall not subcontract any of its obligations under the Contract without the prior written consent of Purchaser. Any such consent of Purchaser will not release Seller from, or limit, any of Seller's obligations under the Contract. Seller represents, warrants and guarantees that any such subcontractor's performance will satisfy all requirements and obligations applicable to Seller under the Contract. Seller is solely responsible for all means, methods, techniques, sequences and procedures and for coordinating all portions of the work necessary to complete the Contract. Notwithstanding Purchaser's approval of a subcontractor, Seller is solely responsible for all payments due to that subcontractor.

29. Severability. If any term(s) of the Contract (including these Terms and Conditions) is invalid or unenforceable under any statute, regulation, ordinance, executive order or other rule of law, such term(s) shall be deemed reformed or deleted, as the case may be, but only to the extent necessary to comply with such statute, regulation, ordinance, order or rule, and the remaining provisions of the Contract shall remain in full force and effect.

30. Notices. All notices, claims and other communications to Purchaser required or permitted under the Contract shall be made in writing and sent by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested and proper postage prepaid to the following address (or such other address as is provided to Seller by Purchaser) and shall be effective only upon receipt by Purchaser in the form set forth in this Section 30:

Seller's failure to provide any notice, claim or other communication to Purchaser in the manner and within the time periods specified in the Purchase Order shall constitute a waiver by Seller of any and all rights and remedies that otherwise would have been available to Seller upon making such notice, claim or other communication.

31. Claim from Seller. In addition to any other restrictions contained in the Contract, any action by Seller under the Contract must be commenced within one year after the breach or other event giving rise to Seller's claim occurs, regardless of Seller's lack of knowledge of the breach or other event giving rise to such claim.

32. Electronic Communications and Electronic Signatures. Seller shall comply with any method of electronic communication specified by Purchaser, including requirements for electronic funds transfer, Purchase Order transmission, production Releases, electronic signature, and communication.

33. Governing Law; Dispute Resolution. The construction, interpretation and performance of the Contract and all transactions thereunder shall be governed by the Laws of the State of Michigan, without regard to principles of conflicts of law. The United Nations Convention on the International Sale of Goods is expressly excluded. Any claims or disputes arising between the parties arising under this Agreement shall, at Purchaser's sole election, be resolved through binding arbitration under the Commercial Arbitration Rules and Mediation Procedures published by the American Arbitration Association by a single arbitrator appointed in accordance with said rules. If arbitration is elected by Purchaser, the arbitration shall take place in Plymouth, Michigan and be conducted in the English language. The arbitration shall permit discovery, as deemed reasonable by the arbitrator. If Purchaser does not elect arbitration, then Seller consents to the exclusive jurisdiction of the appropriate state court in Wayne County, Michigan or, if original jurisdiction can be established, in the federal court in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan, Southern Division, for any legal or equitable action or proceeding arising out of, or in connection with, each Purchase Order. SELLER SPECIFICALLY WAIVES THE RIGHT TO A JURY AND ANY AND ALL OBJECTIONS TO VENUE IN SUCH COURTS.

34. No Third-Party Beneficiaries. Unless otherwise expressly provided for herein, no provisions of the Contract are intended or shall be construed to confer upon or give to any Person other than Seller, Purchaser any rights, remedies or other benefits under or by reason thereof; provided, that the Indemnitees shall be third party beneficiaries of Section 18 with rights of enforcement hereunder.

35. Survival. The obligations, representations, warranties, and covenants of Seller under these Terms and Conditions and the Contract that by their nature are intended or reasonably expected to survive the expiration or termination of these Terms and Conditions and the Contract, including (a) the obligations, representations, warranties, and covenants of Seller with respect to Products delivered to or ordered by Purchaser prior to such expiration and termination and (b) the obligations, representations, warranties, and covenants of Seller set forth in Sections 3 (Service Requirements), 4 (Warranties), 5 (Quality), 7 (Remedies), 12 (Intellectual Property), 14 (Confidentiality), 16 (Compliance with Laws), 18 (Indemnification; Recalls), 20 (Audit Rights), 21 (Term and Termination), 22 (Limitation of Liability), and Sections 25-39, shall survive the expiration or termination of the Terms and Conditions and the remainder of the Contract created hereunder.

36. Entire Agreement. The Contract (including these Terms and Conditions) constitute the entire agreement between the Parties with respect to their subject matter, and supersedes all prior oral or written representations or agreements by the Parties with respect to the subject matter thereof. Except as authorized in Section 13, no subsequent terms, conditions, understandings, or agreements purporting to modify these Terms and Conditions or the remainder of the Contract will be binding unless in writing and signed by both Parties.

37. Interpretation. (a) The words “include,” “includes” and “including” shall not be limiting and shall be deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation”; (b) the word “or” is not exclusive; and (c) the words “herein,” “hereof,” “hereby,” “hereto” and “hereunder” refer to these Terms and Conditions as a whole unless the context requires otherwise. Unless the context otherwise requires, references herein: (i) to Sections shall mean the Sections of these Terms and Conditions; (ii) to an agreement, instrument or other document means such agreement, instrument or other document as amended, supplemented and modified from time to time to the extent permitted by the provisions thereof and (iii) to a statute means such statute as amended from time to time and includes any successor legislation thereto and any regulations promulgated thereunder. Section headings are included for convenience of reference only and shall be ignored in the construction or interpretation hereof. The Contract shall be construed without regard to any presumption or rule requiring construction or interpretation against the Party drafting an instrument or causing any instrument to be drafted.

38. Advertising and Publicity. Seller shall not discuss, disclose, advertise, market or otherwise make known to third parties (including any clients, customers, vendors or suppliers of Purchaser) any information relating to any projects or business of Purchaser or any Purchaser Products produced and delivered under the Contract, including mentioning, disclosing using or implying the name of Purchaser or any of Purchaser’s projects, developments, clients, customers, vendors, suppliers, personnel or contractors, or the existence of the Contract (including these Terms and Conditions), in each case without the Purchaser’s prior written consent.
